From the pastor...

The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord is like the Feast of the Holy Family: usually falling on a Sunday, but occasionally on a Monday, depending on the day of the week on which Christmas falls. It brings to a conclusion the formal celebration of the Christmas season, although the Feast of the Presentation of Jesus, February 2, may surely be seen as belonging to the Christmas mysteries.

Christmas and Epiphany may be said to reveal the identity of Jesus, the incarnate Son of God. The Baptism of Jesus inaugurates His public ministry as messiah. In a beautiful scene, which depicts the presence and action of the Blessed Trinity in the work of salvation, the Spirit descends upon Jesus while the Father proclaims "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased."

The Garden Club wishes to thank everyone who donated and purchased the wonderful cookies. The profit was $1,427.00!
