From the pastor...

Happy Independence Day, a day that celebrates the historical event of the separation of England's North American colonies from the British empire.

I think it is fair to say that for most Americans now, the celebration has broadened to one of appreciation of and gratitude for the blessings God has bestowed on our nation. Of course, we all remember that our first citizenship is in God's kingdom and that we judge the success of every nation, including our American nation, from that perspective.

But that is not to say that the perspective is for aiming criticism, but rather for directing our efforts to do everything we can as faithful and participating American citizens to bring our perspective to bear through our political participation and so bring our nation closer in values and quality to God's kingdom.

God bless America!

STATEMENT ON SHOOTING IN CHARLESTON: We are all deeply saddened by the tragic shooting deaths at the Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Charleston, South Carolina. This senseless violence, committed in a house of worship upon persons of faith engaged in prayer and study of scripture, is difficult to comprehend; it serves as a lesson to all of us that we must continue to work to break down the walls of intolerance and hatred that lessens us and turns us away from Christ’s teachings. We ask all the faithful within the Diocese of Columbus to offer prayers for the victims, their families, and their entire faith community.

Where do we go from here? Taking back marriage for our children and families: Wednesday, July 15th, 7:00-8:30 p.m. at the Pontifical College Josephinum, Jessing Center. There is much confusion in today’s culture about the reality of marriage. We are left wondering: How do we protect our children from adopting distorted concepts of love and marriage? How do we promote the truth about marriage between man and woman in our society? William B. May, author of Getting the Marriage Conversation Right, and frequent guest on EWTN and Catholic Radio, will discuss the need for a new Marriage Reality Movement and provide a roadmap for reclaiming the truth about love and marriage. All are welcome to this free presentation sponsored by St. Gabriel Radio and the Diocesan Marriage & Family Life Office.

Pope Francis Issues Encyclical Letter on Ecology Laudato Si: On Care For Our Common Home On Care for Our Common Home (Laudato Si’) is the new appeal from Pope Francis addressed to “every person living on this planet” for an inclusive dialogue about how we are shaping the future of our planet. Pope Francis calls the Church and the world to acknowledge the urgency of our environmental challenges and to join him in embarking on a new path. This encyclical is written with both hope and resolve, looking to our common future with candor and humility. Please take some time to read and digest this important teaching document by Pope Francis. Also make room to pray, reflect, and consider actions to care for Our Common Home. Finally, engage in conversation about the contents of the encyclical with family, friends, and fellow parishioners.
