From the pastor...

Tuesday is the feast day of St. Kateri Tekakwitha. She is the patron of the environment and ecology.

Born in 1656 in Auriesville (NY), she was raised by relatives when her father, mother, and younger brother died of smallpox, herself left heavily scarred by the disease. Her name means "she who bumps into things." Converted to Catholicism as a teenager, she was baptized at age 20. From that time on, she was at odds with most of her tribe and moved to a settlement of Mohawk converts a little south of Montreal. She died at age 24. Witnesses say her scars vanished minutes after her death.

Perhaps she might also be a good patroness for those who convert to Catholic Christianity in the face of opposition from family and friends as well as for those who have suffered some disfigurement from illness or accident.

St. Kateri Tekakwitha, pray for us.

Congratulations to our new members of Parish

Where do we go from here? Taking back marriage for our children and families: Wednesday, July 15th, 7:00-8:30 p.m. at the Pontifical College Josephinum, Jessing Center. There is much confusion in today's culture about the reality of marriage. We are left wondering: How do we protect our children from adopting distorted concepts of love and marriage? How do we promote the truth about marriage between man and woman in our society? William B. May, author of Getting the Marriage Conversation Right, and frequent guest on EWTN and Catholic Radio, will discuss the need for a new Marriage Reality Movement and provide a roadmap for reclaiming the truth about love and marriage. All are welcome to this free presentation sponsored by St. Gabriel Radio and the Diocesan Marriage & Family Life Office.
