From the pastor...

I'd like to share with you the very remarkable last paragraph of an address in Bolivia by Pope Francis to the World Meeting of Popular Movements – a joint venture of the Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace and the Vatican's Academy for Social Sciences.

"In conclusion, I would like to repeat: the future of humanity does not lie solely in the hands of great leaders, the great powers and the elites. It is fundamentally in the hands of peoples and in their ability to organize. It is in their hands, which can guide with humility and conviction this process of change. I am with you. Let us together say from the heart: no family without lodging, no rural worker without land, no laborer without rights, no people without sovereignty, no individual without dignity, no child without childhood, no young person without a future, no elderly person without a venerable old age. Keep up your struggle and, please, take great care of Mother Earth. I pray for you and with you, and I ask God our Father to accompany you and to bless you, to fill you with his love and defend you on your way by granting you in abundance that strength which keeps us on our feet: that strength is hope, the hope which does not disappoint. Thank you and I ask you, please, to pray for me."

SMM night at the Clippers has been rescheduled (June 26th was rained out) for Monday, July 20th, which is dime a dog night (10 cent hot dogs).

A Mass of Healing and Healing Service will be held on Monday, July 20, 6:30 p.m., at St. Joseph Cathedral. Cathedral Rector Fr. Michael Lumpe will celebrate the Mass; Msgr. Frank Lane will provide the homily. Following the Mass, a Healing Service will take place beginning with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Veneration of relics of the True Cross, with each person having the opportunity to speak individually with one of several priests present to discuss their particular situation and receive a prayer of healing; the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick will also be available. The Healing Service will conclude with Benediction. All persons who seek healing are invited, as are family members, caregivers, and medical professionals. For questions, please call St. Joseph Cathedral (224-1295).

We invite guests into our homes and try to make them feel comfortable, provide for their needs and make them feel welcome. We call this gracious welcome “hospitality.” In our American society, there are whole industries who consider themselves in the hospitality business. There is another place where hospitality is very important and that is in our churches. God and the Church has provided us with this beautiful building, St. Mary Magdalene Church and Jesus calls us to invite people inside and make them feel welcome. St. Benedict wrote rules for living a Catholic life. These rules are still practiced today in monastic communities. Rule 53 states: “All guests who present themselves are to be welcomed as Christ for He Himself said in Matthew 25: “I was a stranger and you welcomed me.” In the coming weeks, you will hear more about hospitality and a new and expanded hospitality ministry that will be happening here at St. Mary Magdalene. We have the opportunity to do exciting things for Jesus and His Church, this church. If you are interested in being in on the beginning of this new venture, please call Bobbi Lindner at 266-5712 or email bwilindner@yahoo.com. (This ministry project is approved by Parish Council.)

Jack and Nancy Smith want to thank all the parishioners who contributed in any way to the success of the 2015 SMM Yard Sale. Nearly 60 of you helped out by donating your new and used items, providing baked goods, accepting donations, sorting, pricing, moving, delivering, displaying and/or selling the merchandise to the many friends and neighbors shopping our June 27th sale. Because of damp and iffy weather, we stayed inside and the shoppers still found us. Because of YOU, we made over $3,300.00 for our parish! Thanks especially to our committee and their family members who contributed their time, great ideas and enthusiasm to this labor-intensive fund-raising effort: Jeanette Bach, Karen Cottrell, Joanne Davis, Rose Dulin, Kathy Foley, Tamara Francone, Mary Fern Horch, Mary Karabinos, Alex Lipscomb, Avery Lipscomb, Joff Moine, Diane Puccetti, Paul and Becky Puccetti and Brian Regan. A big thank-you, as well, to Officer Scott LaBrake, who provided security for us again this year, making us all feel safe under his watchful eyes. Also, a HUGE shout-out to the Dent brothers, who worked all Friday afternoon to move chairs, tables, cabinets and other large, heavy items to prepare the church hall for the indoor sale. There’s no way it would have been ready for Saturday’s sale without you boys. Finally, we truly appreciate the SMM staff for all they did to assist before, during and after the sale. Carol, Terrie, Lawrence and Doug – we could not possibly have done it without you and we know it! Again, many thanks to ALL of you! We hope you had as much fun as we did. ☺

Thank you/Apology/Future: A special thank-you to the members of St. Vincent de Paul, who accepted the responsibility of organizing and staffing the Festival Grocery Booth this year. Thank you to those who stepped up to help run the booth. With the support we received from our parish families, we set a record for both number of baskets and set a new bench mark for profitability. This parish made it happen and I thank you for your generosity and support.

To those of you who signed up to work the Grocery Booth and didn’t receive a call from me and that would be all of you, please accept my apology. It was my responsibility and could to some extent be blamed on age and information getting lost in the crevices of the cerebral brain that lies somewhere between my ears.

The point is our parish and its many ministries future depends on our replacements. Many of us seniors are quickly approaching both physical and mental limitations. Some of us have already reached that point. We still have a lot to offer and will happily mentor our replacements and hop you will consider the opportunity to someday play a part in the future of these wonderful and fulfilling ministries at St. Mary Magdalene. Join us on this journey of spiritual growth in service to the needs of our community. Remember 3 things: You have nothing to fear but fear itself. Be fearless. Ask not what your parish can do for you but rather what you can do for your Parish Family. No matter your age or circumstances Bloom Where You Are Planted.

God’s Blessing To You and All of your tomorrows,
Joff Moine St. VdP President
