From the pastor...

On the Today Show earlier in the week, one of the participants joked that her family handled the holiday rush by picking one day to (1) have a turkey dinner, (2) exchange gifts, (3) and then stay up until midnight and shout "Happy New Year."

I think that's carrying things to a bit of an extreme, but it is true that things get very busy and time flies very quickly as the holidays approach. All Saints Day, the first of the winter holidays, has already passed. Can Thanksgiving be far? And then it really lets loose: first of feast of the the Immaculate Conception, then Christmas day and then the feast of the Mother of God (New Year's Day). Four of the five annual holy days of obligation fall between November 1 and January 1!

Amid all the religious celebrations is the work that the holidays require: Christmas shopping, cleaning the house, preparing dinners, writing and sending cards, entertaining family and friends; don't let all the busyness rob you of enjoying this season with your families. Take some time to relax, take some time to pray, take some time to enjoy the love of your family. Before you know it, we will be looking back on these holidays. It would be a shame to have not really enjoyed them.

Love Is Our Mission: A Call to Live the Joy and Mission of Marriage and Family Life: All are invited Tuesday, November 10th, 7:00 p.m., Bishop Ready High School as The Most Reverend Frederick F. Campbell discusses the recent World Meeting of Families. Come and discover how you can answer Pope Francis' call to become a family fully alive! For more information, visit www.colsdioc.org or call 241-2560.

Birthright is in desperate need of diapers for babies! All sizes are appreciated but especially large size. For more information, call Kathy Foley at 276-8391. Birthright offers love, hope, friendship, information, practical help and referrals for as long as a woman needs us to bring their babies to term. We believe that there is hope for women facing unplanned pregnancies and we ensure they are not alone. Diapers can be placed in the bassinet in the gathering space.

2015 Annual Community (free) Thanksgiving Day Dinner at St. Aloysius Family Center. (W. Broad at Midland Avenue). All are welcome to break bread together on November 26th. 10:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. Please join us for a wonderful, traditional Thanksgiving meal. Especially invited are the hungry, homeless, working poor, those who may be alone on the holiday and ALL who wish to share a meal along with their hearts with the "least of our brethren." Many hands are needed to assist with the dinner on Thanksgiving Day and with dining hall set up, truck unloading, and bagging food items on Wednesday, November 25th. Our greatest need is for donations of baked turkeys! Baked turkey donations must be confirmed by Saturday, November 21st to ensure we have enough turkeys in ample time for the dinner. To volunteer/bake and deliver a turkey, please call Sandy Bonneville at 875-5669. Thank you and God Bless!

A Mass of Healing and Healing Service will be held on Monday, November 16, 6:30 p.m., at St. Joseph Cathedral, 212 East Broad Street. Fr. Paul Noble will celebrate the Mass and provide the homily. Following the Mass of Healing, a Healing Service will take place beginning with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Veneration of relics of the True Cross, with each person having the opportunity to speak individually with one of several priests present to discuss their particular situation and receive a prayer of healing; the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick will also be available. The Healing Service will conclude with Benediction. All persons who seek healing – cancer, heart, all physical illnesses and infirmities – are invited, as are family members, caregivers, and medical professionals. For questions, please call St. Joseph Cathedral at 224-1295.
