From the pastor...

Happy Independence Day, a day that celebrates the historical event of the separation of England's North American colonies from the British empire (something that Scotland, Northern Ireland, and Gibraltar are considering now in the wake of the plebiscite to separate Great Britain from Europe).

I think it is fair to say that for most Americans today, the celebration of the Fourth of July has broadened to one of appreciation of and gratitude for the blessings God has bestowed on our nation. Of course, we all remember that our first citizenship is in God's kingdom and that we judge the success of every nation, including our American nation, from that perspective.

But that is not to say that this perspective is for aiming criticism, but rather for directing our efforts to do everything we can as patriotic and participating American citizens to bring our values to bear through our political participation and so bring our nation closer in values and quality to God's kingdom.

God bless America!

Jack and Nancy Smith want to thank all the parishioners who contributed in any way to the success of the 2016 SMM Yard Sale. Nearly 50 of you helped out by donating your new and used items, baking goodies, accepting donations, sorting, pricing, moving, delivering, displaying and/or selling the merchandise to the many friends and neighbors shopping our June 25th sale. Because of YOU, we made nearly $3,000.00 for our parish, while also supporting our greater Westside community. Thanks especially to our committee and their family members, who contributed their time, great ideas and enthusiasm to this labor-intensive, fund-raising effort: Gloria Angelo, Jeanette Bach, Karen Cottrell, Joanne Davis, Rose Dulin, Mary Fern Horch, Mary Karabinos, Tim and Peggy Landers, Alex Lipscomb, Avery Lipscomb, Connie Melvin, Diane Puccetti, Paul & Becky Puccetti, Brian Regan, Kathy Rowe and Jim, Jane & Patrick Stumpp. Thanks, also, to Officer Scott Labrake, who provided security for us again this year, making us all feel safe under his watchful eyes and Jim Gerardi, who picked up heavy merchandise. Also, a big thank-you to the following students who did some serious heavy lifting to prepare for our sale: Cade, Cael, Cullen and Conlan Dent; Tony Puccetti; Mario Lopez and especially, Cory and Kyle Regan, who helped tremendously before, during and after the sale. You guys make us feel great about the future of our parish and our community. Finally, we truly appreciate the SMM staff for providing constant support and enthusiasm for this project. Carol, Terrie, Lawrence and Doug – we could not possibly have done it without you! It takes a whole team to make a project like this a success. Thanks again for being part of the team! We hope you had as much fun as we did. ☺

A BIG THANK-YOU TO NANCY AND JACK SMITH...
