From the pastor...

The Christmas Craft Bazaar was again a great success! Thanks to all the many parishioners who participated by making crafts, making baskets, making baked goods, staffing the floor helping customers with their purchases, serving as cashiers.

Special thanks to the Bazaar co-chairs, Mary Ann Graham and Bobbi Lindner; the Afghan Raffle Coordinator, Julie Marmon; the Bake Sale Organizer, Alice Carrier; and the "Café" Coordinator, Cindi Oddi. And, of course, we also thank our persistent helpers, our office staff: Terrie Wurst and Carol Lauber.

We are hovering around a profit figure of $7,000.00 with a few bills to pay and some more baskets to sell. I am proud of all the parishioner help, participation and leadership that made this effort such a success.

Thank you to our Knights of Columbus for sponsoring our annual "Trunk or Treat."

A huge thanks to everyone who had any involvement with this year's Bazaar. It is impossible to do without you, and your time and talents are greatly appreciated. If you were kind enough to have a sign in your yard, please return it to the church as soon as possible. You can leave them inside the side doors or on Fr.'s porch. Mary Ann Graham, "Baskets from the Bazaar, are at the back of the church for sale."
