From the ex pastor...

Thank you for joining in the celebration of my retirement. It made me so happy to meet and talk with you one more time. And thank you for 17 of the best years of my priesthood. I have absolutely no regrets about asking to become your pastor those many years ago.

I am humbled by the hours of hard work so many people put into planning and executing the celebration. The committee members are Mary Ann Graham, Lisa Rowe, Linda Henry, Gloria Angelo, Ken Miller, Betty Regan, Shelley Hamilton, the Knights of Columbus, Jeff Klosterman and John Hamilton [wine stewards], Cindy Oddi and Bobbi Lindner [co-chair people].

Thanks also to K of C Council 13581, Boy Scout Troop 33, and the Vietnamese Catholic Community for their presentations honoring our work together.

You have very generous hearts. Thank you all for the collective gift from parish members and for the many cards and gifts from individuals parishioners. It is my intention to thank you all personally for your gifts. I pray I don't accidentally miss anyone. And since there was a little mix-up in the packing of your gifts for me to take to my new home, please be forgiving if you don't recognize the gift I acknowledge!

In addition to the welcome and understanding I received from the parish members, I would especially like to acknowledge the support and assistance from parish and school staff members that made a tenure of 17 years possible, with special thanks to Carol Lauber and Terrie Wurst.

I will miss you all and I promise I will continue to pray for you and remember you in my Masses. Please continue to pray for me, too. God bless you all.

To everyone who helped give Fr. Stan a lovely time at his Retirement Reception – thank you so very much. We had a beautiful prayer service led by Fr. Leo Connolly. We socialized, sipped wine and ate delicious food and celebrated 17 years of ministry together. We would like to acknowledge the Reception Committee for all their efforts:

Mary Ann Graham The Knights of Columbus

Linda Henry Betty Regan

Gloria Angelo Lisa Rowe

Shelley Hamilton Ken Miller

In addition, we would like to thank the SMM Choir for their worship leadership. It took many hands, and a lot of effort. We thank you all for coming to make it such a special day for Father Stan.
