Thanks for the Book Sale Help!

Thank you to everyone who volunteered to help make our second annual St. Mary Magdalene book and media sale a great success! Dozens of you donated books and other media, hauled books down to the church hall, sorted through thousands of donations, distributed fliers, shared the event on social media, baked cookies, worked and shopped at the sale, and/or packed up the leftover items and cleaned the hall afterwards. Because of all of YOU, the book and media sale was a true group effort which generated over $1,000.00 for our parish, while offering excellent goods at incredibly fair prices. We also thank the Knights of Columbus for sharing the church hall with us during their pancake and egg breakfast. Their hard work and hospitality truly enhanced our sale, helping to transform it into a wonderful community outreach event. Finally, we thank Father Toner, Father Garland and especially the SMM staff, including Lawrence, Doug, Carol and Alice, who graciously provide assistance and always enthusiastically support our efforts. We could not have done it without you.

– Nancy Smith
